Tandberg is tops in videoconferencing, Genesys makes good in contact centres, Cisco gets a mention for enterprise telephony and Juniper Networks nails network security.

In addition, the company that built Telecom's XT Network - Alcatel Lucent - is the optical vendor of the year in Asia Pacific for the second year in row.

That's according to Frost & Sullivan, who have just announced their Asia Pacific ICT Awards for 2009.

The awards were judged by an independent panel based on criteria which included: revenue growth, market share and growth in market share, leadership in product innovation, breadth of products and solutions, major customer acquisitions, and business and market strategy, amongst other category-specific criteria.
